

CLAIMS

What is claimed is:

1. A door assembly for a bathing enclosure, the assembly comprising:

5 a first door suitable to slide along an entry of the bathing enclosure, the first door having a transparent or translucent portion and a portion with a first imagery; and

10 a second door suitable to slide along the entry of the bathing enclosure into and out of an overlapping relationship to the first door, the second door having a portion with a second imagery;

15 wherein the first imagery and second imagery are complementary in appearance so that when the first and second doors overlap each other to a specified extent the first and second imagery combine to form an overall image feature that is a representation of a real object and is visible from a front side of the first door.

20 2. The door assembly of claim 1, wherein the overall image feature comprises a target having a bull's eye.

25 3. The door assembly of claim 2, wherein the overall image feature comprises at least two linear components extending outward away from the target in two different directions.

4. The door assembly of claim 1, wherein the overall image feature comprises a keyboard.

30 5. The door assembly of claim 1, wherein both the first and second doors have a transparent or translucent portion.

6. The door assembly of claim 1, wherein both the first and second doors have a transparent portion.

7. A bathing enclosure, comprising:
enclosure walls with a frontal entry; and the door assembly of claim 1 mounted across the frontal entry.
